

Eighth Grade ELA Standards to be Addressed in the Fourth Quarter

Please See PARCC Evidence Tables for PARCC Expectations

Please see PARCC Framework for PARCC Expectations

All standards will be taught to mastery by the end of Q4.

Throughout the quarter students will cite evidence. Throughout the quarter students will analyze content.

Reading Standards for Literature

Reading Standards for Informational Text

RL1. Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

WIDA. Highlight key language to cite textual evidence. Use a three-column graphic organizer to categorize textual evidence.

RL2. Determine a theme or central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to the characters, setting, and plot; provide an objective summary of the text.

WIDA. Provide a graphic organizer (e.g., story map, flow chart, or character web). With a partner, discuss the theme or central idea and highlight evidence while using the graphic organizer. Then, write an objective summary about the theme or central idea.

RL3. Analyze how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story or drama propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or provoke a decision.

WIDA. Provide a graphic organizer for character analysis and plot diagram to organize incidents in literature. Portray a word wall with a picture and definition.

RL4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.

WIDA. Highlight key words. Use oral and visual aids to help review figurative language (e.g., songs, and poems).

RI1. Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

WIDA. Highlight key language to cite textual evidence. Use a three-column graphic organizer to categorize textual evidence.

RI2. Determine a central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to supporting ideas; provide an objective summary of the text.

WIDA. Discuss the main ideas and supporting details using a graphic organizer to write a summary.

RI3. Analyze how a text makes connections among and distinctions between individuals, ideas, or events (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories).

WIDA. In a small group, discuss how they connect themselves to the individual, ideas or events in the text. Then, discuss the interaction between the text's individuals, ideas or events.

RI4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including analogies or allusions to other texts.

WIDA. Highlight key words. Use oral and visual aids to help review figurative language, connotative and technical meanings (e.g., songs, and poems).

RL5. Compare and contrast the structure of two or more texts and analyze how the differing structure of each text contributes to its meaning and style. WIDA. Provide or create a Venn diagram to help compare and contrast the text.	RI5. Analyze in detail the structure of a specific paragraph in a text, including the role of particular sentences in developing and refining a key concept. WIDA. Identify and evaluate the text structure. Highlight text features with a partner and do text feature walk with a small group.
RL6. Analyze how differences in the points of view of the characters and the audience or reader (e.g., created through the use of dramatic irony) create such effects as suspense or humor. WIDA. Create a game to help identify difference between text devices (e.g., irony) and text effects (e.g., suspense and irony). With a partner identify and explain the development of character point of view.	RI6. Determine an author’s point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author acknowledges and responds to conflicting evidence or viewpoints. WIDA. Highlight evidence of author’s point of view with a partner. Create their own comic strip to understanding of the author’s point of view.
RL7. Analyze the extent to which a filmed or live production of a story or drama stays faithful to or departs from the text or script, evaluating the choices made by the director or actors. WIDA. Provide a Venn diagram or T- chart to compare and contrast the production from the text or script to the educational video. With a partner, discuss and explain why the director chose to depart or stay faithful to the text or script.	RI7. Evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of using different mediums (e.g., print or digital text, video, multimedia) to present a particular topic or idea. WIDA. Provide a graphic organizer (e.g., Venn diagram, T-chart, or three column chart) to organize the differences in various mediums. With a partner discuss and explain which medium is most effective in presenting the topic and identify its limitation.
RL8. Is not applicable to literature.	RI8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient; recognize when irrelevant evidence is introduced. WIDA. Provide an outline for the argument. Have small group discussion to highlight evidence to eliminate irrelevant evidence to support the claim.
RL9. Analyze how a modern work of fiction draws on themes, patterns of events, or character types from myths, traditional stories, or religious works such as the Bible, including describing how the material is rendered new. WIDA. Students listen to class discussion about themes, patterns of events, or character types in work of literature to make connections to their own lives and/or familiar stories or myths from their own culture. Predict the evolution of literary characters, themes, and plots.	RI9. Analyze a case in which two or more texts provide conflicting information on the same topic and identify where the texts disagree on matters of fact or interpretation. WIDA. Highlight and create a Venn diagram to identify information in the texts. Create a game (e.g., jeopardy) to identify fact and opinion.
Writing Standards/Language Standards
Throughout the quarter, students will write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
Throughout the quarter students will study and apply grammar

W7. Conduct short research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question), drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions that allow for multiple avenues of exploration. WIDA. Be able to locate resources: online, newspaper, library, books, interviews, magazines, and speakers. Give visual aid or worksheet for steps of investigation.	L5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g. verbal irony, puns) in context. b. Use the relationship between particular words to better understand each of the words. c. Distinguish among the connotations (associations) of words with similar denotations (definitions) (e.g., bullheaded, willful, firm, persistent, resolute.)
W8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation. WIDA. Provide different examples of cited sources. Create hands-on games to cite sources. After reading, use sentence frames to convey the information in their own words.	L6. Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases; gather vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
W9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Apply grade 8 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Analyze how a modern work of fiction draws on themes, patterns of events, or character types from myths, traditional stories, or religious works such as the Bible, including describing how the material is rendered new”). b. Apply grade 8 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient; recognize when irrelevant evidence is introduced”). WIDA. Highlight evidence with a partner to support particular points in the text. Find patterns related to literary characters, themes, and plots using graphic organizers with a partner. Provide sentence frames to help support their claim in their argument.

Speaking and Listening Standards

Throughout the quarter students will conduct discussions	Throughout the quarter students will report findings
Comprehension and Collaboration	Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas
SL1. Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher led) with diverse partners on grade 8 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion. b. Follow rules for collegial discussions and decision-making, track progress toward specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed. c. Pose questions that connect the ideas of several speakers and respond to others' questions and comments with relevant evidence, observations, and ideas. d. Acknowledge new information expressed by others, and, when warranted, qualify or justify their own views in light of the evidence presented. 	SL4. Present claims and findings, emphasizing salient points in a focused, coherent manner with relevant evidence, sound valid reasoning, and well-chosen details; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.
	SL5. Integrate multimedia and visual displays into presentations to clarify information, strengthen claims and evidence, and add interest.
	SL6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate. (See grade 8 Language standards 1 and 3 for specific expectations.)
SL2. Analyze the purpose of information presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and evaluate the motives (e.g., social, commercial, political) behind its presentation.

SL3. Delineate a speaker's argument and specific claims, evaluating the soundness of the reasoning and relevance and sufficiency of the evidence and identifying when irrelevant evidence is introduced.
