

NMREC-1 Invites You to an Early Learning Workshop focusing on Cooperative Learning and Cultural Relevancy October 15, 2022 8:00am-3:30pm Registration at 7:30am

San Juan College - Henderson Bldg 9008

Full-day Workshop on Key Practices for Early Childhood.

Panelists and facilitators will be your early childhood colleagues with experience and leadership in the key topics!!

Practices and strategies for engaging students in cooperative learning activities (and fostering social-emotional development)

Practices and strategies for promoting cultural relevancy within early childhood programs

We'll also take a look at early childhood program quality indicators for self-assessment, reflection, and implementation.

DOOR PRIZES!!

TACO BAR LUNCH INCLUDED!

Certificates will be presented following the event for 7 hours of professional development.

This event is supported by the
WK Kellogg Foundation.
PR#P0132562

For more information and registration, visit <http://www.nmrec1.org/events/early-learning/> or scan the QR code to go directly to the Professional Development site

